

UQ School of Music

Ensemble Extension Activity Participation Fees

Purpose

The School of Music provides opportunities for students who have not enrolled in large ensemble or chamber ensemble courses to participate in those activities for enjoyment, personal development, or as an extension activity.

Terms and Conditions

1. The chamber ensemble participation fee is $300 for one semester, and the large ensemble participation fee is $200 for one semester.
2. Participation in the ensemble is subject to successful audition: do not pay the fee until they have completed their audition and been advised that they have been successful.
3. The fee must be paid by the census date for the semester (31 March for Semester One, 31 August for Semester Two).

Application Process

1. Audition for your preferred ensemble.
2. If successful in the audition, pay the participation fee using the appropriate online payment form for the large ensemble participation fee.
3. Provide your receipt to the ensemble manager at a rehearsal.
